The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 15, 1873.

TO-DAY'S FIGURES.

The returns continue to come in with provoking slowness. Last night's dispatches add 258 to yesterday's official returns, which gave 116 majority; or, counting the estimated majorities in Wasco and Umatilla, in excess of the official returns, we have a total majority for Nesmith, as far as heard from, of 706. We have thought it best, so far, to present in our tabulated statement, only such returns as have the appearance of being official. We have corrected the table of yesterday, adding partial returns from Yamhill, Polk, Clatsop and Columbia:

	Smith.	Nesmith
Benton	...	100
Clackamas	32	...
Columbia	...	30
Clatsop	9
Douglas	...	194
Jackson	...	78
Lane	...	34
Linn	...	309
Marion	...	14
Multnomah	536	...
Polk	...	100
Umatilla	...	300 est.
Wasco	...	125 est.
Washington	...	26
Yamhill	...	60
	577	1283
Nesmith's total majority		706

It is quite probable that this majority will be largely increased by additional returns from Linn, Jackson, Polk, Lane and Josephine. Other counties will contribute small majorities, sufficient, perhaps, to send Nesmith to the mountains with a majority over Hiram Smith of about [illegible],130. So incomplete are the returns that it is well-nigh impossible to form any accurate estimate of the actual majority.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.

To-day an election for Supreme Judge will be held in California. There are three parties in the field: the Independents, the regular Republican and the Democratic. Hon. Elisha W. McKinstry is the Independent nominee. He is favorably known to the people of this coast as an upright judge, an able lawyer and an excellent [illegible]. The Republican nominee is Hon. S. H. Dwinelle, of San Francisco. He also is a gentleman of fine legal attainments and excellent character. The Democratic nominee is Sam. Bell McKee, and is spoken of in favorable terms by the California press. Judge McKinstry has the support of the Sacramento Union, the San Francisco Bulletin, the Call and other influential journals of that State. The theory upon which his nomination was made, supposes that the "regular" Republican party has not yet freed itself from the odious railway influences which caused its defeat last month. There is every reason to believe that the Bulletin, the Call and the Union are right. Their warfare is waged not against the party but against the corruptions which have crept into it. Gov. John Bidwell, one of the oldest and most popular Republicans in California, has announced himself in favor of the Independent movement. When such journals as those we have named, supported by such men as Bidwell, lend their influence to the people's cause, there can be little doubt of the result. [illegible] dispatches say that the Independents are actively working, while the [illegible] are doing nothing. There is [illegible] to believe that Judge McKinstry will be elected by a handsome majority.

THE BULLETIN AND THE GRAND JURY.

[illegible] of Saturday, the 11th inst., [illegible] said:

> "The grand jury, soon to sit, will find it much [illegible] of this county, and greatly [illegible] of [illegible], to watchfully scrutinize the official conduct [illegible] of the Prosecuting Attorney. [illegible] require it."

Among the many virtues that adorn the [illegible] of the individual who penned [illegible], we never reckoned the gift of [illegible]. But it seems now that when [illegible] invoked the vigilance of the [illegible] vision of the frauds and [illegible] of Monday, with which his [illegible] henchman, Mulkey, and [illegible] tools of the Custom House [illegible] now stand accused, must have [illegible] over him. And now will this [illegible] of the kindling eye and keen [illegible] instinct just tell us what the [illegible] of yesterday's discoveries will be? [illegible] second our request, that the grand [illegible] scrutinize Mr. Durham's "official [illegible] to the extent of seeing that he [illegible] his duty by the parties who are [illegible] with encouraging repeating and [illegible] voting? Perhaps the Custom [illegible] editor of the Bulletin is qualified, [illegible] an intimate acquaintance with the [illegible] of the repeating crowd, to act in the capacity of complaining witness. Perhaps.

A FALSE DELUSION.

The seer of the Bulletin looks over the [illegible] field of Monday and exclaims, [illegible]: "We doubt whether all the efforts of the OREGONIAN have kept five hundred Republicans away from the polls." We are not disposed to dispute with the Bulletin on that point. It was not the OREGONIAN that defeated Hiram Smith—it was the sovereign people. The Boston Advertiser, in announcing the defeat of Butler and the triumph of the people of Massachusetts, forcibly declared the necessity for a reform and asked: "Will other States take up the work?" We send answer to the old Bay State: Oregon has taken up the work. She has rebuked iniquity in high places, corrupt practices in politics, and the arrogance of [illegible]." The difficulty with the Bulletin seems to be this: it cannot appreciate the [illegible] fact that the people would not endorse its heinous doctrines. When it learns this it will be better prepared to appreciate the influence of the OREGONIAN with the best classes of Oregon. However, it has freed the OREGONIAN from the imputation which some of its followers attempt to affix to it: that it defeated the Republican party.

ANOTHER DOSE FOR THE BULLETIN.

Because the OREGONIAN expressed its joy at the triumph of the people of California over the Central Pacific Railway monopoly in the recent election, the Bulletin charged it with treachery to the Republican party. Perhaps it would like to hear the opinion of an eminent Republican authority on the same subject. In a speech at Fond du Lac, October 3d, General Washburn, Governor of Wisconsin, alluded to the California election in these words:

> The people are looking more to their immediate interests than formerly. Hetofore loyalty has covered a multitude of sins, but that day is passed, for though the people have no idea of entrusting with power those who were enemies of the country in its hour of trial, they will require ability, integrity and fidelity on the part of their public servants, whatever their antecedents may have been during our recent conflict. The recent contest in California has a deep significance. From the outset, I confess to have felt a sympathy with Governor Booth and the reform movement there. Such a movement was there necessary. Both parties, Republican and Democratic, were completely in the control of the money power of that State, but the people have proved themselves master, as they always will, when they choose to measure their strength. They have fought a good fight in California, and have come off conquerors.

Now let the Bulletin read Governor Washburn a homily on "party fealty."

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.

The Legislature of Washington Territory is soon to elect a Territorial Treasurer. We have heard Hon. J. H. Munson mentioned as a possible candidate for re-election to that office. Mr. Munson is amply qualified for the position. During his term now closing he has proven an efficient officer, a courteous gentleman and in every respect a man of unimpeached integrity. We shall be glad to hear that the Territorial Legislature has concluded to reward him with the compliment of another term.

A survey of the line between the Crown Point and the Belcher mines, shows that the latter company has been encroaching on the lead of the former for some time past. The Virginia City Enterprise says that on the 900-foot level the two companies were working exactly on the line; but in going down, Belcher gradually deviated from the perpendicular, until it had worked over upon Crown Point ground a distance of nearly twenty feet. It is said that reclamation will be made on the Belcher company for about $1,000,000. The ore at the point in dispute is very rich, and the demand for damages is made on the opinions of expert miners.

After a year or more of close confinement, Marshal Bazaine has at last entered on his trial. It promises to rival the famous Tichborne cause in duration and uncertainty. We read that the accused is to be confronted by upward of 270 witnesses, including two Marshals, seventeen Generals, twelve Colonels, a hundred other military men of various rank and several sailors. Besides these there are three diplomats, a prefect, a priest, a barrister, a solicitor, a miller, a shoemaker, a butcher, and a gardener. Jules Favre and M. Gambetta are among the witnesses summoned. The Marshal's list is equally long.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY LEGISLATURE.

Fourth Biennial Session.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

OLYMPIA, Oct. 13, 1873.

The House met at 10 A. M. After the reading of the Journal and the transaction of some unimportant business, the following bills were introduced:

H. B. No. 15—An act to encourage the cultivation of oysters in this Territory. Read first time.

H. B. No. 16—A bill for an act to amend an act entitled an act providing for the holding of a joint convention for the election of Territorial officers, such convention to meet the third Tuesday after organization, instead of the fourth Monday. Referred to Committee on Election.

H. B. No. 17—Act relating to stock marks, which prohibits the cutting off more than one-third of the ear of any kind of cattle, under penalty of $100. Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

H. B. No. 18—Striking out the section "requiring petitions for licenses." Read first time.

H. B. No 19—Relating to estrays in Walla Walla county.

Memorial No. 1—Relative to the removal of obstructions in Skagit and Nooksack rivers, and asking Congress for an appropriation to render same navigable for a distance of ten miles. Passed.

Resolution No. 2—That Dr. S. Hemmenway be requested to report on the state of the Lunatic Asylum and its inmates, and his views on the future wants of that Institution. Read a third time and passed.

H. B. No. 20—An act to provide for the formation of corporations. Ordered printed.

Memorial No. 2—Asking for an appropriation for a port of asylum at Port Orford.

One of the most important bills of the Session was then presented as H. B. No. 21—An act to confirm the title to Seattle and Walla Walla Railway of certain tide lands in and about Elliott's Bay, in King county. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, with instructions to print.

A good deal of valuable time was wasted in endeavoring to correct the minority report on Printing, submitted on Saturday, and which was objected to on reading of the Journal.

H. B. No. 10 was referred to the Committee on Agriculture, with instructions to print, after which the House adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow, Tuesday.

I have been informed that three Tacoma gentlemen, whose names I shall refrain from giving, left the terminus on Saturday last in a sail boat, whether to hunt ducks, or look for anchorage for the Saranac, your correspondent knoweth not: suffice it to say, the boat upset in deep water, dropping their guns (one of which cost $100, and all of them borrowed) into David Jones' locker, there to remain sine die, while their basket of provisions floated slowly away toward the Pacific ocean. The parties not wishing to pass the evening in the company of sharks and mermaids, and without waiting to look for bottom, hastily put for shore, where they all safely arrived wetter but wiser men. One of the would-be divers, to be romantic, remained invisible for several hours, but is now considered out of danger.

Great preparations are making for the entertainment to be given on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Episcopal church. The music and singing on the occasion promises to be unusually attractive.

LETTERS ON THE ELECTION.

OAKLAND, Oct. 13, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The election in this, the largest precinct in Douglas county, resulted in giving J. W. Nesmith 94 majority. Other parts of our county have pronounced equally positive on the issue of Senator Hipple's reputation. From these returns he can now ascertain his popularity in a county which his friends have hitherto claimed for him.

The Republicans of this county, having had the first opportunity, have now passed their judgment upon him, and their verdict is that upon his head rest the calamities of the entire party throughout the State.

From the determined stand in this precinct, it will be perceived, how near correct your correspondent's prediction was as to the popular sentiment in this section, the majority against the bigamous resolution far exceeding the highest estimate, which will be equally correct throughout the county.

The proposition heretofore made by us has been fully vindicated—that it is one thing for a self-elected Convention to foist upon a party a sentiment in conflict with the principles of the party, and quite another thing for that party to be lashed into its endorsement.

DOUGLAS.

DAYTON, Oct. 13, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The election in Dayton precinct passed off very quiet—less than one-half the usual number of votes polled—and instead of 60 Republican majority, Nesmith received four. The following is the vote: Nesmith, 44; Smith, 40. How is that for Hi? DAYTON.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Benton.

CORVALLIS, 1:30 P. M., Oct. 14.—Up to this time five precincts have been heard from which give Nesmith one hundred majority. These give a good indication of the result in this county which will not vary far from two hundred in favor of Nesmith. Not over a two-thirds vote was polled. But little interest is taken here in the result.

CORVALLIS, Oct. 14.—Smith, 92; Nesmith, 158; scattering, 3. No news from outside precincts.

Clackamas.

OSWEGO, Oct. 14.—Smith, 23; Nesmith, 57.

Clatsop.

ASTORIA, Oct. 13.—The total vote of Astoria is 131; Smith, 76; Nesmith, 55.

WESTPORT, Oct. 11.—This precinct cast 18 votes; Smith, 3; Nesmith, 15.

Columbia.

ST. HELENS, Oct. 14.—We send returns from this county as far as heard from. They are unofficial. Union precinct gives Smith 35, Nesmith, 27; Scappoose—Smith 3, Nesmith 17; Deer Island—Smith 1, Nesmith 12; Sauvie's Island—Smith 0, Nesmith 9. Nesmith's majority, so far, 26. No other reports up to hour of writing.

RAINIER, Oct. 14.—Total vote, 27; Smith, 10, Nesmith, 17. Only about one-third of the voters of the precinct attended the election.

Douglas.

ROSEBURG, Oct. 14—10 P. M.—This precinct gives Nesmith 93 majority. The county will give 300 or more for Nesmith.

Linn.

ALBANY, Oct. 14.—Lebanon—Smith 17, Nesmith 70, Mrs. Duniway 3. Brownsville—Smith 28, Nesmith 104. Orleans—Smith 13, Nesmith 9. Santiam—25 majority for Nesmith. Syracuse—24 majority for Nesmith.

ALBANY, 2:30 P. M., Oct. 14.—Up to this time eleven precincts have been heard from, which give Nesmith 357 majority. Six precincts to hear from yet, which will in all probability increase his majority to about 450. There was but little interest taken in the election here and everything went off very quietly.

Lane.

EUGENE CITY, Oct. 14.—North and South Eugene precincts give Nesmith 34 majority. We have no intelligence from other parts of the county.

Marion.

SALEM, Oct. 14—6 P. M.—The vote in this county is remarkably light. The contest is close, with the chances for a small majority in Nesmith's favor.

Polk.

DALLAS, Oct. 13.—The polls are closed and the vote stands: Smith 33, Nesmith 72. Nesmith's majority, 39. A number of voters were in from other precincts and voted here. This precinct usually casts from 175 to 200 votes on the State ticket, about equally divided between the two parties.

Yamhill.

DAYTON, Oct. 14.—Whole number of votes cast in this precinct, 84—Smith 40, Nesmith, 44.

LAFAYETTE, Oct. 14.—Lafayette precinct gave Wilson 10 majority. Yesterday it gave Nesmith 14 majority. Dayton precinct, usually Republican by 70 or 75 majority, gives Nesmith 4 majority. No other precincts heard from. There is a report that McMinnville has gone for Nesmith.

MCMINNVILLE, Oct. 14.—There are in this precinct about 300 votes, with about 30 Republican majority. The vote stands—Smith, 44; Nesmith, 85.

MCMINNVILLE, 14—10 A. M.—Amity is about even. In Sheridan precinct, Nesmith is 3 ahead. No particulars, except that but one-half the usual vote was polled. I hear Lafayette gives Nesmith 30 majority.

As far as heard from Yamhill gives Nesmith a majority of 62.

NORTH YAMHILL, Oct. 13.—Total number of votes in this precinct, 160; total vote polled to-day, 81; Smith, 37; Nesmith, 44.

Umatilla.

UMATILLA, Oct. 14—5 P. M.—It is estimated that the majority for Nesmith in this county will reach 300.

Wasco.

THE DALLES, Oct. 14—4:30 P. M.—Nesmith's majority in Wasco county will be 125.

WEDNESDAY MORNING OCT 15 1873

CITY RIFLES—SOCIAL PARTY.—The nineteenth anniversary of the incorporation of the city of Portland was commemorated in a gallant style by the City Rifles last evening at their Armory. The room was well filled by an assemblage of persons the fair sex predominating. Each member of the Company appeared in full uniform adding much to the scene of festivity being enacted in the brilliantly lighted [illegible]. Four quadrille sets were formed [illegible] and all seemed to understand the movements necessary to make the dance interesting to those engaged in it. Waltzes [illegible] mazourkas etc, were distributed through the programme and each and every [illegible] partook of the enjoyments of [illegible]. We [illegible] were about to depart the [illegible] Dan Tucker and then [illegible] amount of amusement to those [illegible] as well as a few who looked on [illegible]. The affair was a success and we trust the Rifles will be favored with a [illegible] on or like social entertainments in the future.

OUTSIDE PRECINCTS.—The following precincts outside [illegible] have been heard from. We have been unable to obtain the total vote cast in each precinct or the number polled for each candidate.

Hiram Smith's majority in Sandy precinct is 34.

In St. Johns Nesmith received 16 votes and Smith 10.

Multnomah precinct gave Nesmith a majority of 10.

Powell's Valley also gave Nesmith a majority of 10.

Smith's majority in Fulton was 17.

The total [illegible] thus far heard from are Smith 51 Nesmith 26. Smith's majority over Nesmith [illegible].

Sauvie's Island and Willamette precincts are yet to be heard from. No official vote was cast in Grant, the voters casting their suffrages in East Portland.

PUBLIC DEMONSTRATIONS.—A public demonstration was held last evening in front of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, by the friends of J W Nesmith who arrived here on the Dalles boat from Eastern Oregon. The Portland band discoursed some of their best strains, rockets were sent off whizzing into the air, and the fizzing and detonations of fire-crackers made the streets fairly reverberate. Soon a crowd of several hundred persons had assembled. In response to the shouts of "Nesmith" that doughty personage appeared on the balcony and addressed the assemblage. In consequence of indisposition Mr Nesmith spoke but a few minutes. After retiring Judge E D Shattuck was called out and addressed the crowd for a short time. He was followed by Dr Caples, Judge Strong, R J Ladd and others. The crowd then dispersed.

HAS A SPITE.—The editor of the Salt Lake Tribune seems to be a very envious person, whoever he may be. His own feet must be of immense size and he therefore looks with a jealous optic on all persons who are blest with shapely and symmetrical pedestal extremities. This is why the Tribune editor does not admire the people of Portland. Every few weeks he makes some disparaging remark about the Portlanders' feet. His last paper says: "The manufacture of slippers is being carried on extensively at Portland, Oregon. The advantages these slippers possess over those manufactured in the Eastern States is, that mothers can spank a pair of children at one and the same time. Webfeet were not put upon this world for nothing. For all they spread out considerably there is some bottom to them."

FROM THE LOWER COLUMBIA.—The following quantities of freight have been received at the O S N Co's wharf in this city, by the boats which belong to that corporation, from October 1st to date: 110,000 pounds of wheat, 2,300 pounds of oats, 4,700 feet of lumber, 24 dozen poultry, 1 500 pounds butter, 14 rolls of leather, 117 hides, 2 packages furs, 187 sacks of oysters, 67 pounds salmon, 84 cases potatoes, 6 000 bales hay, 20 head of cattle, 10 head of hogs, 20 head of horses. In addition to the above considerable quantities of freight have been brought from points along the lower Columbia by the steamers Calliope and Mary Wilkens. Although freighting has been quite dull during the present month the above showing will serve to indicate the magnitude of the lower Columbia river traffic.

BEING EXTENDED.—During the last eight and forty hours the Wallamet has receded nearly four feet. This has left a considerable portion of the bank exposed, which was several feet below water a few days since. The lower end of the Stark street sewer that formerly just reached to the edge of the water is being extended some four or five yards. The intention is to have the end where the water, garbage, etc, is discharged under water even at the lowest stage of the river. It is certainly a prudential move as the eye and nostril of the public will not be offended.

ILLEGAL VOTING.—Four men were arrested on Monday evening for illegal voting and taken to jail. The names of these men are Ben Franklin, Lawler, Buck and John Ryan. Yesterday morning these parties were arraigned in the Police Court. The defendants were represented by J F Caples and R E Bybee, who appeared as counsel. Three of these defendants pleaded not guilty, and one entered a plea of guilty. On motion of the District Attorney these cases were continued until this morning.

UNFORTUNATE.—Some of the sidewalks of Portland are not in as good condition as they might be, but Salem appears to be ahead of this city in that respect. The Statesman says: We have been looking for it for a long time, and it has come at last. A hole in the sidewalk did it. A Portland lady, visiting this city, attended church Sunday evening, and in going home stepped into the hole, fell, and broke her leg. The city may now have a bill of damages to pay, and it would serve it right, too.

PROF C. B PLUMMER.—This gentleman who has many times caused our mirth loving citizens to laugh heartily at his entertainments, is again in the city. For several weeks he has been subjected to a severe cough, but is now enjoying better health than ever. He will give an entertainment at Oregon City on Thursday evening and at East Portland on Saturday evening. Next Monday he goes to Walla Walla, returning to Portland about the 1st proximo.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—We are requested to state that the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold a fair during the afternoon of Wednesday—from 2 to 4 o'clock—for the sale of fancy articles, the handiwork of the ladies themselves, and in the evening they will hold a festival, and use their utmost endeavors to make it an enjoyable evening to all who attend. The object of the fair and festival is a charitable one.

WASHED OVERBOARD.—We learn from the Astorian that John Jervis, a native of Canada, aged about thirty five years, an able seaman and an excellent man, was washed overboard from the brig Perpetua last Saturday about 12 o'clock as the vessel shipped a heavy sea coming into the river. Capt McDonald informs us that the unfortunate man sank out of sight almost immediately, and any efforts to save him would prove futile.

A LARGE TOW.—One of the largest feats of towing which has probably ever been performed by any [illegible] on either the Columbia or Wallamet river was accomplished a few days ago by the [illegible] Dixie Thompson. This steamboat [illegible] barks in tow and left Astoria on Sunday at [illegible] o'clock P M. She arrived at this port at [illegible] A M on Monday, making the distance with the [illegible] vessels in [illegible] hours.

A NEW [illegible].—The Statesman of yesterday says: Mr H W [illegible] of East Portland, exhibited at the Fair a new specimen of pear, a variety imported by him from Delaware. It is good size, delicate texture, fine delicious flavor, beautiful waxlike complexion and is a remarkably good keeper. It attracted much attention and several of our best fruit growers pronounced it a superior variety.

COMING UP.—The City of Paris and Jane A Falkinburg are both on the way to this port, the former in tow of the Emma Hayward and the latter in tow of the Ocatta. Both these vessels will arrive here to-day.

ROUGH USAGE.—The Willamette River Transportation Company's splendid steamer Gov Grover received some rough handling on Saturday as she attempted to run the gauntlet at the Clackamas rapids. Fortunately no serious damage resulted to the hull which scraped heavily over the shoal. The wheel was pretty badly bruised and battered up and the guards did not escape without more or less damage.

ALICE—SHOO FLY.—Both these steamers which so narrowly escaped destruction last spring are being rapidly rebuilt and will soon be ready to report for active service. The upper works of the Alice are almost completed and the roof is being tinned. She will be finished in about three weeks. The Shoo Fly, which is lying at the lower sawmill, is about [illegible] completion.

DIED FROM THE EFFECTS.—Mr Fred Dorn who fell out of a buggy on Monday in East Portland, sustaining very serious injuries about the neck, died on Monday night. He never spoke once from the time he fell until he breathed his last. Deceased was an old resident of East Portland. He leaves a wife to mourn his sad fate.

NEW BUILDINGS.—G W Vaughn proposes soon to commence the erection of five buildings at the corner of Morrison and Front streets on the levee side. The plans and specifications have been finished by Messrs Burton & Piper and sealed proposals for building materials and work are advertised.

SAILED.—The steamer California sailed last evening from this port for Sitka and way ports. She carried hence a full cargo and a few passengers.

AMUSEMENTS.

The public [illegible] mindful of the fact that the Vivian [illegible] an excellent troupe will give [illegible] select and chaste entertainments at [illegible] Hall this evening. Everywhere the press and public speak in flattering terms of the performances. Mr Vivian as an artist in his peculiar and fascinating role requires no commendation at our hands, while the remainder of the troupe are each very clever in their respective lines. Crowded houses greeted this company at every performance given last week during the Fair. Their debut this evening will no doubt be warmly received as Vivian is one of the great favorites with this public. Box sheet will be open to day at Gray's Music Store.

The threshing season was just over in Eastern Oregon last Saturday.

The Circuit Court for Douglas county will convene at Roseburg next Monday.

Thos K Sheridan has taken charge of the O and C R R telegraph office at Eugene.

Thirteen ocean vessels and steamers and four river steamboats were at Astoria last Saturday.

Roseburg collected fines, taxes and licenses during the past year to the amount of $2 747 27 and disbursed $2 707 14. She has $40 in her Treasury and owes $100.

A Portland lady, name not given, says the Statesman, attended church in Salem last Sunday evening and in going home stepped in a hole in the sidewalk, and, falling, broke her limb.

There will be a race on the Fair grounds at Salem to day between J F Bybee's Confidence and Wm Gird's Plowboy, a single dash of a mile. Also a race of a half mile in which four horses are entered. Some fun is anticipated.

Colonel Kimball, Inspector of Indian Affairs for California and Oregon, visited the Umatilla reservation last week. While there he held a council with the leading Indians, all of whom were bitter in their complaints of the management of the reservation. So says a Walla Walla paper.

Some time since U S Commissioner of Agriculture sent a request to Mr J Henry Brown, of Salem, to forward to him specimens of the fruits of this State. Mr Brown undertook the task of collecting the best specimens obtainable, and has forwarded a case of apples and pears—the finest he thinks ever sent out of the State.

The annual city election in Roseburg took place last week with the following result: For Trustees—G Haynes 100, Geo A Wagner 64, A A Fink 47, Wm Freelander 100, S Hamilton 112, H Gates 21, A R Flint 68, Isaac Jones 33, scattering 9. Total number of votes cast, 187—a gain over last year of 27.

The Statesman of Tuesday says: Mr Greene C Patton, known to many of our readers living in the Waldo Hills, attempted to commit suicide Saturday by taking poison. He swallowed a large dose of strychnine, arsenic and two or three other drugs. He was found by his wife shortly afterward lying on the ground near the barn insensible. He had however taken such an overdose as to defeat his own purpose as he vomited freely. He is still lying in a critical condition, but will probably recover. No reason is known for the attempt except misfortunes in business. He had been in despondent spirits for some time.

VANCOUVER ITEMS

The typhoid fever is slightly abating since the late rains although there are several critical cases in town yet.

The principal roads leading out of Vancouver have become very muddy since the rains commenced. This is particularly the case where the dust was so deep a week ago.

Lieut Boutelle took to himself a wife of the daughters of Vancouver last Sunday evening and on Monday morning started for Fort Lapwai. He spends a week at the Dalles on his way.

Duck hunters are busy now, Sunday being the busiest day of the week. One pious hunter to relieve his conscience makes it a point never to curse when he misses his game on Sunday, although he curses enough during the week to make up all deficiencies.

Mr Blanchet, general superintendent of the Sisters' work in this place, met with a slight accident on Monday, a stick of timber falling from the new building and striking him on the arm. If it had fallen six inches nearer his caput there would have been a funeral in town to-day.

A PEACE MAKER IN POLITICS.—A writer in a Western Massachusetts paper, wishing to cast oil upon the troubled waters of Bay State politics, puts to the public the following conundrums: Is Benjamin F Butler the nine hundred and ninety nine billion horse power devil, the superlatively black hearted incarnate demon, the bloody, murderous thug that men and newspapers proclaim him to be or not? Is Gov Washburn the purest and most unspotted specimen of political human clay that mother Nature ever fashioned into the form of man? If compelled to answer or go to jail we should say by no manner of means not. We presume that Gov Washburn will readily admit that there have been better men than he is, and that Mr Butler if closely pressed will allow that there have been and perhaps still are worse men than himself. If he should prove too conceited to make the concession then we have nothing more to say.

Emil, Lowenstein & Co, recently burned out by the great fire, have removed their stock of Carpets, Curtains, Coverings, etc, to No. 87 FRONT STREET, between Washington and Alder, where they can be found selling off the entire stock AT COST in order to start soon in new quarters with an Entire New Stock. All persons indebted to them are requested to call at their temporary place of business and settle up.

Every mother should see that her darling boy is well clothed for the winter. Messrs BECK & WALDMAN make a specialty of selling Youths' clothing and have a complete stock on hand. The prices are fixed to suit those who wish to economize. They have a full line of gentlemen's fall suits and everything in furnishing goods. They give satisfaction to all. Be sure to recollect this well known firm.

TICHBORNE

THE CLAIMANT'S NEXT [illegible]

The following summary of the proceedings before the Lord Chief Justice and a full Bench is taken from the London Daily Telegraph of September 8. Though imperfectly recording the important testimony of September 8, the statement embodies a comprehensive sketch of the claimant's strongest evidence in which he has taken the prosecution by surprise.

The crowd that yesterday assembled to greet "Sir Roger" and the faithful Bogle was the largest that Palace Yard has yet witnessed, and must have sorely taxed the patience of Mr. Inspector Denning, who had to send to Scotland Yard early in the day for a strong additional reinforcement. Inside the Court was packed. Bogle's evidence was obviously expected to be a piece de resistance, and not only were the galleries crowded but all the known familiar faces were present in Court, from Mr. Cosford, the old gentleman who has never yet missed a day, and from Major Fraser of the Carabiniers to the stout barrister who report asserts to be the particular gentleman alluded to by Dr. Kenealy as knowing every date in English history. A few minutes after twelve Bogle stepped into the box, and we hope it will not be a remark calculated to influence the jury in arriving at their decision, if we observe that his appearance told in his favor. He is a hale old man, but blacker than most of his race, and with grizzled locks which so far retain the ebony hue of their pristine youth as to render that they would find him all white at the top and all black at the bottom more humorous than strictly veracious. Uncle Bogle has a pleasant expression of features, a happy smile, that keeps flitting over his face, and a quiet decorous manner such as befits a vassal of a great house. Either the Court had had its spell of laughter on Friday last over the drolleries of the irrepressible hairdresser or else it was in no laughing humor. Certain it is that "my Uncle Doughty's valet" gave his evidence in the most matter-of-fact manner, and that although every question was closely followed there were no particular demonstrations either of amusement or as is sometimes the case of partisanship.

Considered, as it were, a priori, it is clear that Bogle's evidence resolves itself into two heads—the first positive, that he believes the defendant to be Roger Charles Doughty Tichborne; the second negative, that he himself has not "coached" the defendant up in his story. And a very little consideration will show that if a witness of any natural acuteness stands firmly to these two points it will be to get any "roars of laughter" out of him in cross-examination. As told in chief the old man's story was very simple. He was now, he said, sixty-seven years of age, and he entered the service of Sir Edward Doughty in his eleventh year, and remained in it till that baronet died in 1853. He then—having a pension of £50 a year paid him by Lady Doughty, and £100 given him for his passage money—went out to Australia with his family and settled at Balmaine, a suburb of Sydney. At Sydney it was that he first met the defendant, who came up to him and said, "Halloa, Bogle, is that you?" I said, "Yes, sir; it is; how do you do?" adding, "You have got very stout," to which the defendant replied by the pleasant [illegible] that he was no longer the slender lad that he was when he left Tichborne. [illegible] conversation with the defendant left no doubt whatever upon

[illegible] BOGLE'S MIND

[illegible] he was the man he represented himself to be, and so strongly was he impressed with this belief that he at once consented to accompany [illegible] to England, and has lived in his [illegible] ever since. Such was the gist of his [illegible], which will, nevertheless, be found to [illegible] by question. Incidental points in it are his confirmation of the [illegible] to which other witnesses have already deposed, that Roger and his cousin used to walk [illegible] alone; his story—with which the [illegible] familiar—of how he has lost [illegible], and his evidence about the tattoo [illegible] which took Mr. Hawkins extremely by [illegible] upon him in reply to a question of his own in cross-examination [illegible] that on more than one occasion the [illegible] had gone into Roger's room late at night [illegible] found the young man more or less [illegible] smoking a cigar. Upon these [illegible] he had seen Roger's arms, and he [illegible] perfectly certain that they were not tattooed in any way, "and, to tell you the truth," added the witness, "between you and me, I do not believe that any one ever saw a tattoo upon him."

TAKEN UNAWARES

By this evidence, which he evidently had not [illegible], Mr. Hawkins asked why the witness had never said anything about the matter before [illegible] but failed to elicit any satisfactory reply. [illegible] the rest the tenor of the cross-examination [illegible] to be to show that the knowledge [illegible] by this witness of the Tichborne family and of Roger's early history was co-extensive with that [illegible] by the claimant—so indirectly supporting the hypothesis that the [illegible] obtained from Bogle all the information that he really possessed before he [illegible] his mother in Paris. The cross-examination, although not interesting except to those who possess special knowledge of the details of the case, was yet very severe. It had not concluded when the Court rose and it will be [illegible] to-day.

By five o'clock many thousand people had [illegible] in Palace Yard, which was completely filled, the crowd overflowing into the [illegible] and lining the railings which led to Westminster Bridge. Indeed the popularity of the claimant [illegible] greater than ever, his [illegible] remaining in Palace Yard for hours [illegible], in the hope of catching a glimpse of his portly person, while the cheers which [illegible] him on his departure ought to have [illegible] at Charing Cross, and probably [illegible]. We believe [illegible] at the reassembling of the Court this morning Dr. Kenealy will call attention to a letter which has been received from the Treasurer, and will argue that it is [illegible] nugatory the promise given him by the [illegible] that the expenses of his witnesses should be paid.

FILIAL LOVE.—A boy hero has been developed in Nagy-Brezna, an obscure Hungarian village, lately visited by the plague. Among the victims was a poor peasant woman, who left behind a son aged fifteen but no property. In [illegible] of this latter circumstance, the parish priest and the rest of the villagers were in no haste to make arrangements for the interment, and, in spite of the prayers and tears of the poor lad, the body remained in the hut. Two days later, a peasant woman of property also died, and a grave was immediately dug to be ready for the funeral to-day. When, however, the body was carried to the graveyard it was found that her grave was already filled in. The superstitious villagers fell on their knees and crossed themselves, but the priest, guessing how the matter stood, sent two of the peasants to the hut of his poor parishioner to see whether the corpse was there. They returned, having found that the body had been removed, and bringing the boy with them. On being asked where the body of his mother now was, he pointed sobbing to the newly made grave, saying that by exerting all his strength, he had dragged the corpse to the graveyard, placed it in the grave and shoveled in the earth.

ENGLISH THIEVES.—One of the most ingenious and daring thefts on record was perpetrated a short time since at the village of Brierly Hill, England. A lad entered the store of a grocer of the place and bought a roll of bread which he asked the man to stuff down the back of his jacket, as his companion outside would take it away if he saw it. The grocer complied with the apparently innocent request, and having had his loaf placed in its original hiding place the boy left. Hardly had he quitted the store when another lad rushing in exclaimed, "Do you know what that chap has done? he has prigged your watch!" The grocer looked in horror and saw his watch chain dangling, and his watch gone. "There he goes!" said the informant, pointing to a figure going down the street, and the storekeeper immediately rushed off in pursuit, leaving the store unguarded. When he reached the corner the supposed thief had vanished, and returning to his store he found that during his absence the informer had emptied the till and gone off with the money. The two thieves escaped capture.

Work is progressing finely on the Virginia City and National Park Free Wagon Road, in Montana.

By everyone adopting this method [illegible] which has been allowed to stray from its legitimate course will gradually be brought back again.

The Boston Journal of Commerce says: "The disposition to hoard money is just the cause of the whole trouble, although the embarrassments of the railroad men originally started it. The capital of the New York banks is $84,000,000, and in Boston $49,000,000, and almost all of them have large surplus funds, bringing their united power up to $150,000,000. All banking is based on the supposition that the withdrawal of all deposits simultaneously is entirely improbable, and with deposits guaranteed by the immense capital of $150,000,000 no sane man can doubt the safety of his bank deposits here or in New York. A great deal of unnecessary sensation news in the daily papers aggravated the trouble which ought mainly to have been confined to Wall street. Our Savings Banks are sounder than any similar banks here or in Europe, and a recent high authority in England, Walter Bagehot, editor of the Economist, in his work on Lombard Street asserts that the national banking system of the United States is much stronger and sounder than any system with the exception of the Prussian. A general feeling of hope and confidence is returning, and with the resumption of many suspended institutions which is hoped for early next week it is believed the present unnecessary and senseless panic will end."

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The vessels noticed as arriving during the past few days have not yet perceptibly decreased the quantity in store here, though some are rapidly receiving their cargoes. Exporters here claim that the condition of affairs—the weakness of the Liverpool market, the scarcity of money and price of charters—is such that rates for wheat are not likely to advance, at least for some weeks, and say they are sorry that they purchased so much at the advanced prices two or three weeks ago. The latest sale of importance in our market was the cargo of the bark Orient, 500 tons, at $1 97½ per cental on board the vessel. This is considered a good price, although some of the same lot is said to have cost $2 per cental. Buyers here to-day give us $1 80 as the best figures for ordinary lots. There is but little inquiry.

FLOUR—The market is well supplied, and with the usual demand, rates are firm at our last quotations.

OATS—The demand is well supplied, and for a No. 1 quality in sacks, the quotation is 45 cents ℔ bushel. Without sacks the range is 37@40 cents.

BARLEY—The demand just now is slack, and transactions for the week so far have been limited to small lots for the local trade. We quote dull at $1 40@1 45 ℔ 100 lbs.

HAY—The market is firm at $13@14 ℔ ton for choice baled timothy; loose $11@12; wild hay is dull at $9 ℔ ton.

POTATOES—There is a large supply of all varieties at low rates, the best commanding as a rule not over 40 cents ℔ bushel, while many lots change hands at a less figure.

ONIONS—The market is abundantly supplied and sales effected with difficulty. Quotations are furnished at 1½@2 cents ℔ lb.

APPLES—We note increased receipts and low prices, only choice varieties are quotable at 50 cents ℔ box; lots from wagons at 40 cents.

BACON—The supply of sides is in excess of the present demand, while Oregon hams and shoulders are very scarce in the market and are considerably inquired after. Our quotations for sides are 10@11 cents, hams 15 cents, firm. The supply of Eastern hams is fair.

BUTTER—For a good article the demand is active and the supply light. Prices are firm.

EGGS—The receipts have somewhat increased, and though unchanged, prices are weak at 25 cents per dozen.

HIDES—Dealers are freely taking for shipment all that offer, paying 6@7c for salted, and 14@16c for dry. These prices are for lots without blemish.

WOOL—We quote choice lots in fair demand at 24@25c ℔ lb. The range for common is 18@21c.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time or money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful, and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Post-office or through Wells Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and become too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patents, letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post-office Box 1,957. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN. j76d4p
